Governors Pay Tribute to Washington's Glory.

Ringing Epigrams Wired from All Sections of the Country.

The Voice of the States Raised in High Enconiums.

Now, as Ever, First in the Hearts of His Countrymen.

In response to a suggestion by THE EVEN. ING WORLD, the Governors of States North, South, East and West, unite to-day in these columns in a chorus of telegraphic tributes to the glory of the Father of His Country.

THE MOTHER OF PRESIDENTS SPEAKS.

BICHMOND, Va., Feb. 22, 1899. To the Editor of The Reening World:

Washington said his system for the attainment of the happiness of his fellow-citizens was to overlook all personal, local and partial considscations by contemplating the United States as sne great whole. A good rule for all Presidents.

HITZHUGH LEE, Governor of Virginia. STILL FIRST IN INDIANA HEARTS.

INDIANAPOLIS. Ind., Feb. 22, 1889. To the littler of The Evening World:
The name of Washington is revered in Indiana and he is still first in the hearts of his country ALVIN P. HOVEY, Governor of Indiana.

CALIFORNIA APPRECIATES HIM.

CAPITOL, SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 22, 1889. Torthe Editor of The Evening World:
The attitude of California is best expressed by its profound appreciation of the Farewell Address of the Father of his Country. R. W. WATERMAN, Governor of California.

IOWA PRIZES HIM.

DES MOINES, la., Feb. 22, 1889. To the Edwar of The Evening World: Iowa prizes the liberty which the leadership of Washington made the birthright of the people of these United States, and will maintain her rights under the Constitution and laws of the WM. LABRABEE. Governor of Iows.

AN EPIGRAM PROM KANSAS.

TOPEKA, KAN., Feb. 22, 1889. In the Editor of The Evening World:

hansas reveres the name of Washington. The lapse of years adds value to his deeds, reveals the prophetic wisdom of his words and proves the transcendent glory of his character among the sons of men. LYMAN U. HUMPHREY. Governor of Kansas,

MICHIGAN'S LOYAL VOICE.

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 22, 1889.

To the Editor of The Evening World: The clear waters breaking in freedom upor the shores of our peninsular State, hills bathed with the pure air of loyalty, a star of State eve in its place, and the sentiments coming down from our fathers and heroes of patriotism and valor, forbid that Michigan ever forget the founders and defenders of her faith. The name of Washington is to her indelibly sacred and th anniversary of his birth ever remembered. CYRUS G. LUCE, Governor of Michigan.

FROM MINNESOTA'S EXECUTIVE. Sr. Paul, Minn., Feb. 22, 1889.

r of The Evening World: The whole country is to be congratulated upo e peace and prosperity that prevail through out the land on this anniversary of the natal day of the first President of the United States We have every reason to believe that another century will still further strengthen the ties that bind together our sisterhood of States. W. R. MERRIAM, Governor of Minnesota.

LITTLE DELAWARE'S SENTIMENTS.

MIDDLETOWN, Del., Feb. 22, 1880.

To the Editor of The Evening World:

The birthday of Washington always has been and always will be held in sacred remembrance by every true-hearted Delawarean. Our people are contented, prosperous and happy, with $250,000 assets more than is required to meet were from Long Island and New Brunswick, our obligations as a State.

B. T. BIGGS, Governor of Delaware.

MISSISSIPPI BLESSES THE DAY. JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 22, 1880.

To the Editor of The Exening World : Its response to your telegram I say: Let the day be forever cherished and blessed that gave Washington to us and to mankind. If America had contributed nothing but his character and example to the wealth of the world it would always have been conspicuous among the nations of the earth. There has been no other han worthy to be called the Father of such a country and no other country worthy of such a Tennessee, standing in venerating awe of his greatness and his goodness on this, his natal day, pledges anew her arms, her treasures and her honor to preserve inviolate the institu-tions his genius created and his sword defended. ROBERT L. TAYLOR.

AN INSPIRATION FOR ALL TIME.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 22, 1889. o the Editor of The Evening World

Governor of Tennessee

Wisconsin is the home of a patriotic people, who hold the name of Washington near to their scarts as an inspiration of liberty to themselves and their children for all time to come?
W. D. HOARD, Governor of Wisconsin.

A PRINCIPLE APPLIED IN OREGON.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 22, 1889.

To the Editor of The Econing World:
George Washington led the Continental army to victory in defense of the doctrine of " no taxation without representation." My veto of a bill exempting municipal bonds from taxation was sistained in the Oregon House of Representatives on the ground that when these bonds passed into the hands of private parties they became private property, and that no private property should be exempted from taxation.

The Donoghue boys started in for the honors are property should be exempted from taxation. came private property, and that no private " Equal taxation " is as sacred a doctrine as that for which our fathers contended in the struggle for national independence. SYLVESTER PENNER,

FLORIDA CHERISHES HIS MEMORY. TALLAHARSEE, Feb. 22, 1889.

To the Editor of The Evening World; Though separated from the scene of his glory, Florida heartily joins in commemoration of the natal day of Washington, and cherishes the memory of the patriot, the soldier and the states man, whose life illustrated the highest type of American character, F. P. FLEMING, Governor of Florida.

A SENTIMENT FROM ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 22, 1889. tor of The Evening World

Every Illinois patriot associates the name of Washington, the founder with those of Lincoln, the preserver, and Grant, the defender, of the Federal Union. The combined services of the three greatest Americans gave our people Naionality, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity, JOSEPH W. FIFER, Governor of Illinois.

THE NATIONAL BABY SPEAKS.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 22, 1889. To the Editor of The Evening World :

The Centennial State, the baby of the National family, observes with reverence the birthday of Washington, the Father of his Country. ''To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." JOB A. COOPER, Governor of Colorado,

NOBLE SENTIMENTS FROM GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 22, 1889, To the Editor of the Evening World: In answer to your telegram I suggest the following sentiment: The birthday of Washington should be hailed by mankind as the morning star to the sunrise of constitutional liberty in the world. Georgia unites with her sister States on this the 22d day of February in the earnest prayer that the birth of Washington may be celebrated by all future generations of the American people. and that the political and religious freedom which it suggests may finally bless and comoble the whole family of man. J. B. GORDON, Governor of Georgia.

UNEXCELLED IN HISTORY.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22, 1880, to the Editor of The Reaning World:

Washington, by the great moral strength o his character, contributed as much towards our independence as did the armies he commanded. Incomparably the best product of American manhood, he is unexcelled in history. The more intelligent, the more powerful, the greater his people become, the more they revere his memory.

DAVID IL FRANCIS.

Gevernor of Missouri.

WHO CALLED THE POLICE?

The Le Blanche-Smith Fight Was Suddenly Terminated Last Night.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 22.—The fight between George Le Blanche, the "Marine," and Ed Smith, of Denver, was unexpectedly terminated last night.

The police entered on the second round and stopped hostilities without ceremony. Le Blanche had been knocked down twice. Le Blanche is reported to have been "knocked out" by a club, but he is looking none the worse for his scrimmage to-day.
The large number of sports who were present are sore over their loss of the fun and the ten-dollar greenback they paid to see it.

The fight was for a purse of $1,900 offered by the Denver Cribb Club. The gate receipts aggregated $2,500 more.

NAMBYHLLE, Teun., Feb. 22, 1880.

Nambyhlle, Teun., Feb. 22, 1880.

To the Editor of The Eccesing World:

Tennessee, although not one of the original thirteen, is a rib taken from the side of one, and had her charter signed by the Father of His Country, the third State carved from the great wilderness. She joins heartly in the universal tribate to the fame and unrivalled patriotism of the man who stands head and shoulders above all the heroes of the past. Patriotism had in him its greatest exemplars executive statement.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I NEWBURG, Feb. 22.- The races of the National Amsteur Skating Association commenced to-day on Muchattos Lake.

This place was decided on as the most fitting by the Newburg Skating Association yesterday. There was a goodly crowd of spectators on the scene long before the time set for the first event to take place. To preserve the ice and protect the contestants from obstructions, police were on on the first event, and so far they have been very successful.

The schedule and winners of each event are as follows:

HAS HE SKIPPED HIS BAIL?

FRANK DUDGEON NOT TO BE FOUND AND HIS $10,000 MAY BE FORFEITED.

Brooklyn police have taken alarm to as the whereabouts of Frank B. Dudgeon, the wealthy young man from Oyster Bay, who has to stand trial for aiding in a criminal operation which killed his death-bed wife, Kitty Cody.

The Grand Jury found an indictment against Dudgeon three weeks ago, and the latter after several days in jail managed to get released on a bail bond of $10,000. Dudgeon, who is reputed to have an income of $20,000 a year, himself deposited the sum in each with the District-Attorney. Now word has come that the young man, preferring not to stand trial, has skipped.

Yesterday morning Capt. James Kenney, of the Tenth Police Precinct, received word that Dudgeon had engaged passage on the steamship Orinoco, which was to sail at 2 P. M. from the foot of West Tenth street, New York, for the Bermudas. Accordingly Detective Curran was detailed to go to the pter and see if Dudgeon sailed.

He went over, and after making a thorough search of the vessel without any result, sta-tioned himself on the pier. He remained there for an hour after the vessel had suited, but saw nothing of Dudgeon. He is still bedding for him looking for him,

An Evening World reporter this morning endeavored to locate Dudgesm, but without success. No one had seen him for several days past.

Capt. Kenney, of the Tenth Procinct, who has had charge of the case since it first came into public notice, was seen, but could give or no satisfaction. 'I am sure I don't know where he is." he said, and I can't tell whether he has skipped or not.**

There seems to be very little concern in police circles whether Dudgeon has flown or not. The case is out of their hands. At the District-Attorney's office no one could be found, the office being closed for the day.

IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD 1 Washington, D. C., Feb. 22. President Cleveland, this morning, signed the bill admitting North and South Dakota, Washington and Montana Territories into the sister hood of States.

The circumstance of the admission of Washington Territory as a State on the anniversary of Washington's birth is commented on as a very happy coincidence.

There is much rejoicing here among Republicans who claim that the admission of these new States means a quarter century lease of power to their party. But the Democrats do not seem to mind the good-natured chaff to which they are subjected.
